Class of 2010

This year's Senior Class was far more than just impressive. Along with winning three State Championships, they also accumulated over 5.3 Million Dollars in Scholarships, had one National Merit Finalist and one National Merit Commended Student, had a student accepted into the US Naval Academy, and a student accepted to the US Merchant Marine Academy. All in all, we are very proud of the Senior Class.

Senior Ring Ceremony

On Thursday, September 10, 2009, the SSC Class of 2010 received their Senior Rings. Taking into account the shape of the ring, this unbroken circle does truly mean something. It stands for the unity of the Senior Class, with the student body, and with the thousands of men who have come before them. It also symbolizes the leadership role of the Seniors to the underclassmen, who do in fact look up to them.

The House System

The house system is a long-rooted tradition in the English and European school systems, and our model is taken from fellow Brothers of the Sacred Heart School, St. Columba's College, in England. The house system vertically integrates students across all years into four groupings.

The four houses at SSC are named after four Brothers of the Sacred Heart Schools around the globe: St. Columba in the United Kingdom, Cristo Rei in Brazil, St. Michel in Cameroon, and Cor Jesu in the Phillipines. Each house has its own insignia. Various competitions produce points for the house, which are tallied over the course of the year. The House Cup is awarded to the overall champion, with a plaque added to the permanent trophy, designating the winner for that year. The winner for the 2009-2010 school year was Cristo Rei.

RIGHT: Cristo Rei House Award recipients. MIDDLE: Fans cheer on Cristo Rei. BOTTOM: Sophomore Clint Vancourt about to take someone out in dodgeball

Colegio Cristo Rei is a Portuguese speaking school from pre-kindergarten to twelfth grade, in the Brazilian town of Maranila. Four Canadian Brothers of the Sacred Heart arrived there in 1959, and began the school with just 45 students. Now the co-ed school has grown to 1,500 students following a complete curriculum modeled to the English system of education, and state of the art media and technology facilities. Cristo Rei has a sports program that resembles those in the United States, with competitive teams in girls and boys' basketball, volleyball, and soccer. Dylan Favre served as Captain and Dustin Ladner served as Lieutenant.

Saint Columba

TOP: 8th grader Matthew Tucker watches Saint Columba during a dodgeball tournament BOTTOM: Saint Columba as they build thier can-struction

The address of St. Columba is 8 King Harry Lane, St. Albans, Hertfordshire, United Kingdom, just a short train ride from London. Brothers from the United States took charge of it in 1955 and chartered it in the British school system as an independent Catholic school, which sets it apart from most English secondary schools. The school roll comprises 850 boys. At the end of the secondary school cycle, students can continue a prestigious final year called "A level," which prepares them for entry into university. It has close ties with other Brothers' schools using the British system in Zambia, Southern Africa.

Located in Digos on the southern Philippine island of Mindanao, Cor Jesu College was founded by Canadian brothers in 1959. Because of the number of its programs, it spreads out over two separate campuses which house a kindergarten, an elementary school, a four-year high school and a College department.

Because it is the only institution of higher learning in Mindanao, the college division offers bachelors degrees in Education, engineering, business, and other majors, as well as graduate degrees in Law, Business, and Library Science. Cor Jesu College boasts of alumni all over the world.

St-Michel, an urban secondary school in the heart of Douala, the capital city of Cameroun in West Africa, is structured like the French system of education.

It has a "college" level, which corresponds to grades 8 to 11, and a "lycee," which covers the senior year and a year of university level courses. Lycee students must pass an international examination to earn a post in the national university. St-Michel has more than 2,000 students. In Francophone Africa, where "foot" is a national pastime, its front yard is a regulation soccer field used by students of the school and by semi-pro leagues.

When the dust settled and need hydration taken in, the 2009 - 2010 athletic year at St. Stanislaus College was nothing short of miraculous. People have coined it many different things throughout the year such as monumental, awe - inspiring, and dominating. However, it was like we were living in an athletic Disney World. It was just simply magical. The Rocks put out some great teams and featured some larger - than - life athletes in 2009 - 2010 and we showed that state of Mississippi that 2009 - 2010 was the year of the Rockachaw. It was a year of great accomplishment not just in the classroom with over 5.3 million in scholarships but also on the fields and courts, as well. It was a year that was simply magical. GO ROCKS!

BASEBALL

Baseball was the highlight of the late spring for the Rocks as they closed the athletic year with a rousing run to the school's first ever Class 4A state baseball championship. Led by the hard throwing Boomer Scarborough, the Rocks established a school record with 26 wins against just 3 losses.

Following an 11-1 mark in Division 8-4A and their first ever district title, the Rocks roared into the playoffs. Northeast Jones took the Rocks to three games in their best-of-three format before SSC swept Magee. The Rocks toppled the West Lauderdale Knights, who have 11 state crowns to their credit, in two games.

The Rocks locked horns with North 4A champ Amory and swept them in two games, including a 6-0 shutout in the final game.

The baseball team gave SSC its third state title in one school year.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team led by head coach Jay Ladner advanced to unknown territory after losing their top six players to graduation. The rocks made their first appearance in the Class 4A state title game. If there ever was a time when a less talented team overcame and over achieved, the 2010 basketball team was that team. The squad suffered only five losses all season against 28 victories.

However, three of the losses were ones that stung. After sweeping the Bay High Tigers in the regular season series, the Tigers defeated the Rocks for the Division 8-4A title, the Class 4A South State championship and, ultimately, the Class 4A state title.

Youth Legislature

Youth Legislature and Junior Youth Assembly group is composed of St. Stanislaus' delegates to YMCA-sponsored conferences held at the Mississippi State Capitol building in Jackson during November and April of each year. The conferences are 'mock legislatures' during which the students write and submit bills; serve as senators, representatives, and other officials; and debate and pass legislation in the actual state legislative chambers in Jackson. The experience is designed to teach students how the state legislative process functions, to give them opportunity to reflect upon the leadership challenges confronting our state. In the fall session, 41 delegates from SSC attended. Several SSC officers presided over this year's conference, including Zander Romano as Youth Governor, Brent Murphy as Speaker Pro Tem, Ryan Weitzel as House Sergeant-at-arms, Andrew Gargiulo as Assistant House Floor Leader, Trace Favre as Senate Reading Clerk, Morey Wood as House Reading Clerk, Jordan Gargiulo as Chief of Staff, and Mitch Theologos as Executive Advisor. Serving as committee chairs were Alden St. Mary and Patrick Stovall. Officers elected for next year included Alec Szczechowski as Speaker Pro Tem, Patrick Stovall as President Pro Tem, Ryan Weitzel as Speaker of the House, and Brent Murphy as SSC's second consecutive Youth Governor for the state of Mississippi. Awards were given to Outstanding Representatives Christian Hymel, James Kergosien, Alden St. Mary, and Clint Vancourt, and to Outstanding Senators Patrick Stovall and Alec Szczechowski. The team of Nolan Bevis and Clint Vancourt had their bill signed into law by the Youth Governor.

SSC Trip to Orlando and the Disney Cruise

During Mardi Gras Break, a group of students from SSC took a trip to Orlando, Florida. There they went to Disney World, as well as Universal Studios. After three days of that, they took their trip to the Bahamas. There they spent four days on the Disney Wonder.

Mix It Up Lunch

Mix It Up Day is a National Day where students all across the country make an effort to change their social grouping by interacting with people outside of their typical circle of friends. The goal is to get students to make new friends and to discover that they actually do have a lot in common with people they do not know very well. Here at SSC the main goal was to get students to sit together at lunch, a place where students find themselves most separated. This gives students an opportunity to become closer together, and social barriers are broken down.

Letters from the SSC Yearbook Staff

Taylor Caffey,
Newman
Forestier, and
Kollin Cannon

Making a yearbook is not an easy task. It takes sweat, blood, and tears to do, not to mention determination, courage, and hard work ethics. Long strenuous hours into the night, with no breaks and non stop typing is required to concoct the perfect yearbook, and most would say that perfect yearbooks do not exist in our world. Yet that's exactly what we have accomplished here at SSC. Being part of the yearbook squad, we have learned that so much time is put into making such a prestigious creation. However we did not find this out alone. We owe everything we know to our Chief Commander Ryan Papi Chulo Joachim. Ryan spent time with us first year nubz to teach us the basic fundamental rules in creating a school yearbook. We know that he probably got frustrated to our ignorance of yearbook making, but he is the kind of leader possessing persistence and patience to lead us on through think and thin. Thanks Ryan for everything! We would also like to acknowledge and thank Mrs. Carneiro for being the moderator of the club. This year was legit, but we're hoping the yearbooks to come will be just as great!

Letters from the SSC Yearbook Staff

This school year was filled many accomplishments both in academics and athletics. With so many accomplishments, a great yearbook was in order. The yearbook staff put in many hours of hard work and determination. With the amazing leadership of Ryan Joachim, and an outstanding cover created by Ashton Aime, a great yearbook was in our grasp. All in all, it has been an amazing year.

-Will Hazen

The SSC Yearbook Staff worked very hard on the 2009 - 2010 yearbook. People may take for granted how much strenuous work it takes to complete a school yearbook worthy enough to show to students, faculty, adults, and anyone interested in learning about life at SSC. The 09 - 10 yearbook shows off one of SSC's greatest years in all aspects, academics, sports, as well as student life. It was my first year on the yearbook staff and I had a blast. With the combination of the different yearbook staff members under the experienced Chief Commander, Ryan Joachim, I knew that it was going to be a crazy ride. Without Ryan, I would not be writing this letter. I look forward to working on the 2010 - 2011 yearbook along with this awesome yearbook staff.

-Taylor Anastasio

Letters from the SSC Yearbook Staff

This year was a great year for SSC in all aspects, academics, sports, and as well as student life. I hope, through all of the hard work of this yearbook staff, it will be remembered for being the great year it was. I would personally like to thank Ryan Joachim for his dedication and persistence in ensuring the publishing of this yearbook. I looked forward to SSC's continued success in developing men of character.

-John Paul Drouilhet

Working on this year's yearbook was a very interesting experience. I had never worked on a yearbook before so I really didn't know what to expect. Surprisingly it was really fun and I am looking forward to working on next year's yearbook. The purpose of a yearbook is to help you remember the good years and memories that you had in high school, and that is exactly what we accomplished. Overall this year was very remarkable. Most schools do not win three state championships. So for us to do so is amazing. In conclusion I really recommend that others get involved with the yearbook. I look forward to working on the yearbooks in the future.

-Chris Perkins

Letter from the Editor

I was asked the other day, "Why do you spend so much time on this yearbook?" And at the time I did not know what to say. I have thought about it and have come to realize that the reason why I enjoy making the yearbook is because I know that when we think back on our high school careers we will want something to look at. Maybe at this moment we might not appreciate them as much, but I am sure that in five, ten, maybe even twenty years from now we will have a great appreciation for the yearbook and be very thankful that we have one.

So much goes into making a yearbook that you would not even imagine. Luckily, I was able to put together a yearbook staff that I knew would get things done. They survived the long meetings, the photo searching, the bio writing, computer crashes, Saturday meetings, the page editing, and the page proofing. I am very proud of them and their ability to learn how to use the yearbook program so well. Ashton Aime, John Paul Drouilhet, Taylor Caffey, Will Hazen, Kollin Cannon, Newman Forestier, Chris Perkins, and Taylor Anastasio all helped make this yearbook so special.

The theme this year is "A Championship Year", a theme that we, as the yearbook staff, thought went perfectly. This year was amazing and will be hard to top. With our success in Athletics, as well as Academics, I know that this year will go down as the Year of the Rockachaw.

I owe a special thanks to Ashton Aime, who not only was a major help in deciding the theme, but also designed the yearbook cover. I would also like to thank Mr. Joseph W. Gex II, for allowing us to use his commentary on the Sports Section. Also, I would like to thank Mr. Gleber for allowing us to use his pictures, along with Will Ashley, Daniel Yi, and Chris Perkins. Last but not least I would like to thank Mrs. Saucier and Mrs. Carneiro for being there whenever help was needed. Again I would like to say thank you to everyone who was involved.

-Ryan Joachim

In Loving Memory of Mrs. Dinah Hawkins

Mrs. Dinah worked at SSC for over 24 years and would have celebrated 25 years in May of 2010. She dedicated many years to SSC and she will be missed. She was born in 1952 and died in 2010.
